

FOREIGN DRIVER'S LICENCE

Important information :

- You must apply for a SA Card Licence within 12 months of permanent residence.
- A foreign licence is only valid for one year in the RSA, provided that such a licence is in any one of the official SA languages (or an authenticated translation is attached).
- Validity of such a licence is also subjected to the conditions of issue, as well as to the foreign drivers licence own validity.

How to convert a foreign driver's licence :

- The only Drivers Licence Testing Centre (DLTC) where this can be done currently is the one at Langlaagte in Johannesburg.
- Contact details : Mainreef Road Tel 011 837 5527 (Please be advised as with all government institutions you will have to have patience!)
- You need to apply in person

Take the following with you :

- Permanent residence permit
- Valid foreign passport
- Current foreign driving licence (must be valid for at least 3 months before expiry date) accompanied by an official letter/certificate stating that the licence is valid and also what category/categories of vehicle the foreign code is good for.
- The above-mentioned letter can be obtained from the Embassy of the particular country.
- 4 black and white passport photos
- Proof of current residential address (either water and electricity bill of lease agreement)
- Cash (costs can be obtained from the Langlaagte DLTC)
